Complete Student-Athlete Personal Essay on next page: Coach Jack Sandler was dedicated to growing the sport of lacrosse throughout his entire life. He humbly focused on being a well-rounded player, coach and person, recognizing his strengths and seeking out opportunities to let them grow and shine. He sought out mentors, and grew to be their peers, friends, and competition. Best of all, Jack was a leader. He led his teammates, players, friends, family and even brief acquaintances inspiring them to try harder, learn more and shoot for the stars.

Coach Jack Sandler has been described as reliable, honest, loyal, passionate and a leader.

In 400 words or less, describe how you have demonstrated one of these characteristics both on and off the lacrosse field. Use additional piece of paper if needed.
